

RAA EMAIL POLICY

The RAA email group is intended for discussion of issues related to rental property. Posts should be truthful, respectful and professional.

The following are prohibited:

- Insults
- Characterizations on the basis of race, age, color, religion, gender, ethnicity or disability are forbidden.
- Use of the email group to promote a business or service from which the member may benefit or profit, directly or indirectly.
- Use of the email group in a manner that conflicts with the interests of the Rockford Apartment Association.

The following is permitted:

- A member, who is in the business of selling a product or a service, may respond to an unsolicited inquiry related to that business.
- A member may provide an unsolicited endorsement of a product or service from which the member does not benefit directly or indirectly.
- A member may offer for sale any real estate product, provided the member is not in the business of selling that product.

Determination whether an email violates this policy will be made by a majority vote of the RAA Board of Directors. At the discretion of the Board, members violating this policy may be sanctioned with a warning; suspension of email privileges for a determinate period of time; or permanent suspension of email privileges or revocation of membership.
